Before an Immigration Arrest

Develop an Emergency Response Plan

Keep all of your important documents in an easily accessible place. Make copies of these documents for a family member or close friend to keep in case of emergency.

- Passport
- Marriage License
- All immigration documents, including "A" number if you have one
- Birth Certificate
- Car Titles and Property Deeds

Speak with a trusted immigration attorney to assess your individual immigration situation (see APPENDIX A for a list)

- Always have the number or card of a respected legal service provider or immigration attorney in case of emergency.
- Your family should also have these numbers. Memorize that family member's number.

Have an emergency plan at your place of work

- Ask if your coworkers are willing to stay silent and ask to speak with an attorney in the event that immigration comes to your workplace.
- If your workplace has a union, speak with the union representative to better learn how to prepare in case immigration comes to your workplace.

Have a Plan to Protect Your Family

- Prepare a "Delegation of Parental Authority" form to ensure the proper care of your children with a relative or family friend in case you are detained or deported. (See APPENDIX B)
- Obtain a valid passport for your children.
  - If your child is a citizen of the United States, obtain a passport for them as soon as possible. They will need this to travel outside of the country and prove citizenship later.
  - If your child is not a citizen of the U.S., obtain a passport from their country of citizenship. You can get this from your country's consulate. (See APPENDIX C)
- Register your child as a citizen of your country at that country's consulate so you do not have problems there once you arrive.
  - For example, in some countries, children that are not registered cannot attend school. (See p. 16 for info on how to register your U.S. born children in Mexico.)

Have a Plan to Protect Your Family!

During an Arrest

What to Do During an Arrest

What to do if police or an immigration agents question you:

- You have the right to ask if you are being detained or arrested.
  - If the officer says "No, you are not under arrest or being detained", ask them if you are free to leave. If they say yes, slowly and calmly walk away.
  - *If the officer say "Yes, you are under arrest and/or being detained", then YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT!

If you have valid documents:

- ✓ Show them to the officer. Always carry them with you.

If you do not have valid documents to be in this country:

- ✓ Do not answer any questions.
- ✓ Do not show false documents.
- ✓ Only say "I need to speak with my attorney."
- ✓ Do not say anything about where you are from or how you came to this country.
- ✓ Show the officer the "Know Your Rights" card (see APPENDIX D).

ABOVE ALL

DO NOT SHOW FALSE DOCUMENTS AND DO NOT SAY ANYTHING THAT IS NOT TRUE.

What to Do If Immigration Comes to Your House

If the police, immigration agent or other government agent tries to enter your house:

- Don't open the door
  - It is very important to ask them if they are the police or immigration. (Sometimes, immigration agents will say they are the police, so ask them very specific questions.)
- If it is an immigration agent/officer, they are usually not allowed to enter unless you open the door or give them permission to enter
  - Talk through the door. If you open the door a small amount to talk, the agent might say that by opening the door you gave consent to enter.
- Any law enforcement officer needs a search warrant to enter your home
  - A search warrant is a paper signed by a judge that authorizes the officer to enter your house.
  - The warrant should say in detail who the person is that the officer is looking for
  - If they have an arrest warrant but not a search warrant, they are not legally able to enter your house.
- If an officer enters your home:
  - Write down the names and badge numbers of the officers
  - Tell them that you have not given them consent for a search
  - Take down the names, address, and numbers of anyone who is present
- Do not run - it is not safe to run

What to Do If Immigration Comes to Your Workplace

- STAY CALM
  - Do not run
  - It is not safe to run
- In order to enter your place, the officer must have a warrant from the judge or permission from your employer.

What to Do If Immigration Stops You in Public

- If they stop you in the street
  - They should have a proper order/warrant to do so; ask to see it.
  - If they don't have an order, they must have specific facts that make it reasonable to believe that you are not in this country legally
  - You may ask if you're free to leave and calmly walk away if you're told you're free to leave.

REMEMBER:

You have the right to remain silent. Do not say anything about your immigration status or where you were born. If you have valid immigration documents, show them.

After An Arrest

If You Are Arrested

- Find out who has arrested you
  - Write down the names of the officers and their organizations (FBI, ICE, CBP, etc.).
  - Write down badge numbers (on uniform) and vehicle license plate numbers.
- Do not sign any documents you do not understand before speaking with an attorney
  - It's possible that the agents will try to pressure you to sign something.
  - Do not let them pressure you. They could be trying to get you to sign something that gives up your right to appear before an immigration judge.
- Contact your attorney or a family member
  - You have the right to call someone after your arrest.
  - Memorize the number of your attorney, family member, or union representative.
  - Contact them immediately.
- Contact your consulate
  - You have the right to contact the consulate of your country of citizenship to request assistance.
  - You have the right to tell the agent to inform your consulate of your arrest.
  - The consulate can help you find an attorney.
  - The consulate may also offer to contact your family.
- Ask the judge if you are eligible for bond
  - Apply for bond while in immigration custody.
  - You must be able to show that you are not going to flee or a danger to the community.

DO NOT SIGN ANYTHING YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND BEFORE CONSULTING WITH AN ATTORNEY!

After An Arrest

Important Information About Immigration Detention

How long can the local government detain a person with a detention order from ICE?

According to federal regulations, a person detained pursuant to an immigration detainer cannot be held for more than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The 48 hour period starts to run after the local or state police would have released that person from their custody for any underlying offense.

What happens once the 48 hours has passed?

Because an ICE detainer only allows for an individual to be detained for 48 hours beyond what is permitted by state or local law, the detained individual should be immediately released after the 48-hour period has ended. After this period, you and/or your attorney should ask that you be released if you are not released automatically.

What happens if the jail continues to detain a person when the order has expired?

If the jail does not have independent authority to detain a person based on criminal charges, it is illegal for them to continue to detain that person after the immigration detainer has expired. Contact an attorney if this has occurred.

NOTE about BONDS:

The 48-hours ICE has to pick up a detained individual under an immigration detainer begins to run either once the individual pays the bond for an underlying criminal charge or otherwise would have been released from state custody. So it is possible that ICE can still pick that individual up after they have paid the local/state bond, and that the time in immigration custody will not count towards a sentence. If possible, consult with an attorney as soon as possible after being detained to talk about whether it is a good strategy to pay the local bond. Don't take advice from clerks or jail staff about this.

Delegation of Parental Authority online tool at michiganlegalhelp.org

A free and updated Delegation of Parental Authority (DPA) online tool is available at michiganlegalhelp.org and in Spanish at ayudalegalmichigan.org. We have also included a paper form here.

Preparing a Delegation of Parental Authority (sometimes called a "Power of Attorney") can help make sure that your child had a trusted caregiver if you are unavailable due to immigration enforcement.

Michigan law says that a Delegation of Parental Authority is valid without a notary's signature or witnesses' signatures. However, some doctors, schools, or others may be more likely to accept it if the form is notarized and/or witnessed. Also, some other states require a DPA to be witnessed and notarized. If you have it witnessed and notarized, you can increase the chances that it will be accepted in another state if needed. Notaries are often available at county clerk's offices as well as banks and credit unions.

If you are having your form notarized, do not sign the form until you are in front of the notary.
